

I want to express my concern for the possibility of changing Indiana's law on telephone privacy. I have enjoyed the current law which has saved me much frustration from the frequent solicitous phone calls that I used to receive. I feel that lessening the current law would be wrong and wish for it to remain the same.